... from the author

I am a 25 year veteran of the Postal Service and a long time NALC activist. Having been a Letter Carrier in 7 states, I became aware of just how difficult it could be to contact those of other branches. At times, I found it hard to get in touch with branches that I had previously held membership in. Under the old method, one would have to contact their National Business Agent and politely ask for addresses [phone numbers are usually out of the question].

I began trying to change this in 1992 while in convention. After repeated attempts during 3 national conventions, I finally succeeded in getting a resolution passed calling for a Directory. The results were woefully limited. It was at that point I decided to take on the project myself. One year's worth of research lead to my first publication. Since then, I have been continually updating and refining the Directory.

This document is a living item. It is always being improved upon and added to as knowledge becomes available. Currently, I am working on finding Post Office phone numbers for those branches too small to have their own hall.

If you can help with this effort, please submit your information at your convenience. If you should see any listings that are in error, please advise me ASAP. Thanks for your help. I hope that this Directory will prove beneficial to all. I think that you'll find a network of NALC branches in communication at a lateral level will be a great tool in our ongoing struggle for solidarity.
