Herman Lions Club presents two Melvin Jones Fellowships

Two members of the Hermann Lions Club were presented the Melvin Jones Fellowship Award at the club's annual Christmas dinner last Tuesday at Stone

Hill Winery's Pavilion. Dave Fagermess and Calvin Scheidegger were given the Jones honor, the highest given by the Lions Clubs International Foundation. The Melvin Jones Fellowship Award was created in 1973. It acknowledges an individual's dedication to humanitarian service. Lions Club president, Scott Kell, and past district governor, Al Duffner, presented the honors.

Fagermess, who has had five years of perfect attendance in the Hermann Lions Club, served as secretary for one year and treasurer for six. He recently served on the Lion's Club's Kettle Korn Committee for the Oktoberfest. He is also on the board of directors and is on the Sight Committee. Fagermess joined the Hermann Lions in 1990. He and his wife, Nancy, moved to Hermann from Denver, Cob, in 1987.

Scheidegger, a lifelong resident of Hermann, has been a member of the Lions Club since 1977. For more than 20 years, he has served as chairman for the club's most successful fund-raising event, the annual tractor pull. He also has worked in the Maifest beer garden for many years. Scheidegger, who owns and operates Calvin's Distributing, has supported youth and civic organizations with his time, talents and financial contributions. He has served on the Hermann Volunteer Fire Department, and the local Knights of Columbus. Also, he has served on many committees with the Chamber of Commerce. Scheidegger has played Santa Claus for the St. George Christmas Bazaar for 25 years.
